

78A-6-704 Appeals from serious youth offender and certification proceedings.

- (1) A minor may, as a matter of right, appeal from:
  - (a) an order of the juvenile court binding the minor over to the district court as a serious youth offender pursuant to Section 78A-6-702; or
  - (b) an order of the juvenile court, after certification proceedings pursuant to Section 78A-6-703, directing that the minor be held for criminal proceedings in the district court.
- (2) The prosecution may, as a matter of right, appeal from:
  - (a) an order of the juvenile court that a minor charged as a serious youth offender pursuant to Section 78A-6-702 be held for trial in the juvenile court; or
  - (b) a refusal by the juvenile court, after certification proceedings pursuant to Section 78A-6-703, to order that a minor be held for criminal proceedings in the district court.
